Rites of Passage

“Every little boy needs three things; a gun, a dog and a dad.” That’s the sage advice of Dr. Paige Patterson. He’s the former head of the Southern Baptist Convention and an avid hunter. His point is that little boys will learn responsibility by taking care of that dog. They will learn how to handle danger and respect for the safety of others when they fire that weapon. And from their dad they will learn...well...whatever he teaches them about being a man. Most of that will come by example. John Eldredge agrees with the latter when he says, “Femininity can not pass along masculinity. It must come man to man.”

Sadly, too many boys today have no masculine role models in their lives to teach them what it means to be a man of God. But you can help change that. This year, CrossHeirs Sportsman’s Fellowship will host three youth weekends at our facility in Wrightsville, AR. These dates will be: Dec. 19th and 20th, Jan. 23rd & 24th and Jan. 30th and 31st. We may add another depending upon the interest. Our groups will be kept small with four boys and three men. The first day will be spent with basic hunter safety lessons. The following morning we will hunt, have breakfast then church in the woods! Their will be no cost other than a free-will donation to Beautiful Feet Ministry. If you’re interested in bringing a group or being a mentor please contact me at the address on the newsletter. Our camp is also available for men’s retreats and pastor’s getaways.

EQUIPMENT NEEDED

Now, a few things we will need for this outreach; hunting gear. We have a few guns that have already been donated to this ministry but we could use more. Youth model weapons are preferred. We also need camo...and lots of it. We’ll provide each hunter with a CrossHeirs hat but many of the kids who will hunt with us are from the inner city and will need everything else from jackets to face guards to gloves to waders. All sizes will do...some of these ‘young men’ are huge! Beautiful Feet Ministry is a 501(c)(3) ministry so all donations will be tax deductible. And we need your financial help. We may need to buy the extra gear we don’t get donated. Plus since there’s no cost for the hunts we’ll need your help buying food, ammunition and other supplies for the weekends.

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP DUCK CALLING CONTEST SUNDAY SERVICE

Yeah, I know it’s a mouthful but it’s also an excellent opportunity to share the gospel at one of the country’s premier sporting events. Each year tens of thousands of hunters and their families come to Stuttgart, Arkansas to hunt ducks, eat gumbo and see who will be crowned the National Duck Calling Champion. This year CrossHeirs is proud to welcome back Hank Hough as our featured speaker for the Sunday morning service. Hank is the founder of Kingdom Dog ministries and is a tremendous communicator of the gospel. Well, his dogs are really the ones who capture all the attention. That’s Prophet over there on the left. You will want to bring the whole family for this. It’s the gospel like you’ve never experienced before. The service will begin from the main event stage Sunday morning November 29th at 10am. We will have coffee and doughnuts but you’ll need a blanket!

Tony Dungy Coming to AR?

OK...put your thumb and forefinger as close together as you can get them without touching. That's how close we are to getting Super Bowl champion coach Tony Dungy to come speak at an event we're sponsoring in the Arkansas Delta. My friend Maria is working tirelessly to organize an event for the young men and women in this region known for its poverty of both wealth and spirit. The event is scheduled for a date in January at the coaches convenience. The first half of the day will be filled with seminars and events aimed at teaching various life skills. A banquet that evening will feature Coach Dungy as the keynote speaker. We're very excited at the prospect of having Coach Dungy in town but more excited for the opportunity to reach the young men and women in this area and to launch further initiatives aimed at restoring hope to a lost and dying generation.

Please keep the family of Anne Pressly in your prayers this month. Her trial gets underway in early November and it is sure to be painful. As you may remember Anne was a reporter and anchor in Little Rock. She was brutally attacked and murdered in her home just over a year ago. She was a beautiful person both inside and out and as you can see on the left was a fixture at the monthly Little Rock Media Fellowship luncheons. Also keep in your prayers the many member of the local media who knew and loved Anne. Many have been called as witnesses in the trial and reliving the events have been especially hard.

AN INSPIRING LETTER Your prayers and support make things like this possible!- MM (edited to fit in this space)

Hi Matt, You visited my church in Cabot a couple of years ago. What you talked about was very inspiring, and helped me realize where I needed to minister...I have been volunteering at A Woman's Place in Cabot for about 6 months now. It was the scariest step I had ever taken in my faith but I am so glad I did. I met a young mother in her early 20s with a 2 yr. old little boy. At first I wasn't sure what God was doing because she wasn't the kind of person I would hang out with on a regular basis. She had been through all the parenting classes so we started a Bible study. She started going to church with my family. Two weeks later she was saved, moved out of her boyfriend's house, and into her own place. We watch her little boy while she works, and they have become part of the family. I obeyed God with hesitation and a little doubt when I started volunteering. It was the best decision I have ever made. I have learned so much about myself and others. To minister I must be willing to open my heart to those who otherwise I would normally not notice. It has opened up my children's hearts as well, and that is a blessing! I thank God that when I jump out in faith, He never returns it void!
